The Perfect Prophet^{SAW}, his Messiah^{AS} and servants

Friday Sermon (25th January 2013): Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih said that the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) was defending Islam and the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) while the Muslims and their clergy was siding the others. Today they are taking out rallies to commemorate the birth of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) whereas true happiness is in spreading his message and in invoking blessings and salutations on him (Durud).

“Foolish and ignorant people adopt the position under the dictates of their lower selves that belief in the Unity of God is enough, and that it is not necessary to follow the Holy Prophet^{SAW}; but it is to be borne in mind that a Prophet is the mother of belief in Unity, who gives birth to it and points to the existence of God.” (Haqiqat-ul-Wahi, Ruhani Khaza'in, Vol. 22, pp. 180-181– Essence of Islam, Vol. I, pp. 10 – 11)

World Hijab Day

Non-Muslim girls are taking part in the World Hijab day by Trying on a hijab for a day to experience what it is like to wear a Hijab.

World Hijab Day calls on non-Muslim women to try out life under the traditional head scarf. Some people think women should not have to cover their hair or face but for many women around the world, it is an important outward show of their faith. Organisers of this event reject the idea that women only wear hijabs if they are forced to by their family.

Jess Rhodes, who is giving the hijab a try for month, said she was surprised how positive the reaction to her wearing it has been.

The day has been organised to give people a better understanding of Islam and be more tolerant of people who wear the scarves. It has attracted interest from Muslims and non-Muslims in more than 50 countries across
