

What to study?

Decisions, Decisions!

- Deciding about what to study and specialise in can be incredibly difficult.
- It is a decision that often you would not be taking alone but often involves lots of discussions with family, friends and teachers etc.
- For an Ahmadi Muslim, this decision is even more important as we strive to earn the pleasure of Allah in all that we do.
- Hence, it is important for an Ahmadi Muslim Nasira to choose a future with which she can be of service to the cause of Islam and Ahmadiyyat in the best possible manner.

- In this regard, Lajna Imaillah UK has an association for university students', known as AMWSA (The Ahmadiyya Muslim Women's Student Association).
- On their website you can find further information about different subjects that one could consider studying and details of how to apply for the subject and what future career options a subject hold.

The website is www.amwsa.lajna.org.uk/

(Click on "Subject Requirements" under the "Applying & Starting University" tab.)

The screenshot shows the AMWSA website interface. The header features the AMWSA logo and the text 'AHMADIYYA MUSLIM WOMENS' STUDENT ASSOCIATION'. Below the header is a navigation bar with tabs: HOME, ABOUT AMWSA, TABLIGH AT UNIVERSITY, INSPIRATION, APPLYING & STARTING UNIVERSITY, REVISION & EXAMS, CAREERS, and USEFUL WEBSITES. A search icon is located on the right side of the navigation bar. The 'APPLYING & STARTING UNIVERSITY' tab is selected, and a dropdown menu is open, showing 'APPLYING TO UNIVERSITY' and 'SUBJECT REQUIREMENTS'. The 'SUBJECT REQUIREMENTS' option is highlighted, and a secondary dropdown menu is visible, listing various subjects: BIOLOGY, COMPUTER SCIENCES, ECONOMICS, FOREIGN LANGUAGES, JOURNALISM, LAW, MATHEMATICS, MEDICINE, PHYSICS, PSYCHOLOGY, and TEACHING. On the right side of the page, there is a 'PRAYER TIMES' section with a table of prayer times for Fajr, Zuhr, Asr, and Isha, and a note 'Updated 5th May 2015'. The main content area shows a video titled 'Friday Sermon: The Countless Blessings of Allah' and a 'Tweets' section with a tweet from AMWSA and a tweet from Ahmadiyya Press.
