

In a tradition of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) it is related that the first ten days of Ramadan bring Allah's mercy, the middle ten days His forgiveness and the last ten days save one from the fire of Hell.

SALVATION

When we are sorry for our mistakes and Allah Forgives us with His Mercy, then we carry on trying our best to do good works and follow the commandments of Allah. When we do this Allah is pleased with us and we become closer to Him. This means we can attain salvation; which means that the doors of paradise are open to us and we are saved from the fire of Hell. Remember that we can only achieve true salvation if we carry on doing good deeds and seek Allah's Mercy and Forgiveness.
