

In a tradition of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him) it is related that the first ten days of Ramadan bring Allah's mercy, the middle ten days His forgiveness and the last ten days save one from the fire of Hell.

MERCY

It is with Allah's mercy alone that one is able to fast. Allah declares that His door is open and He is near. But in Ramadhan more doors of His mercy are opened. Satan is put in chains and Allah opens the gates of Paradise. When a person turns to Him in absolute humility then Allah states no one is as merciful as I am.

'They would have surely found Allah oft- returning with compassion and merciful.' (4:65)
