Islamic Principles on Education and Serving Humanity, Hazrat Khalifatul Masih V's address at the UNESCO Headquarters in Paris, France, 8 October 2019)

“Another issue often raised is that of women's rights and it is often alleged that Islam _____ women's rights. Nothing could be further from the truth! Rather, Islam established the rights of women and girls for the first time. At a time when women and girls were discriminated against and often looked down upon, the Holy Prophet of Islam (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) instructed his followers to ensure that girls were _____ and _____.”

“We ensure that girls are given _____ access to education as boys. Hence, the literacy rate of Ahmadi Muslim girls in the developing world is at least _____”

Huzoor (aba) explained that the third Caliph of the Jamaat desired a “new dawn of great Muslim scientists and academics”. As a result, he started a tradition within the Jamaat of awarding gold medals to those who achieve academic excellence
