

Hazrat Musleh Maud (as)

Hazrat Mirza Bashir-ud-Din Mahmud Ahmad, Khalifatul Masih II in his book “Introduction to the study of the Holy Qur’an states:

“If the conditions of a book have at human hands, then that book can no longer serve as a guide.”

“Our Jamaat is a religious community, and for this reason, all of its objectives are based on spiritual foundations, not worldly ones. Materialistic people assess their success and failure on the basis of the problems they face, however, we do not assess our success or failure by this standard, rather we assess it on the basis of the strength of our faith.”

(Khutbat-e-Mahmud, Vol. 13, p. 129)

